Sin.—Outrages of various descriptions, an in some cases atrocious murders, have bee committed in your district by bodies of armemen, sometimes in disguise; and with the view, it is believed, of overawing and intim dation of peacesble and law-abiding citizens and depriving them of the rights guarantee to them by the Constitution and laws of the United States. Your attention is directed. I an actof Congress passed April 9, 1866, on titled an act to protect all persons in the United States in their civil rights, and to furnish means for their vindication; to another passed April 20, 1879, ontitled an act to ensure the constitution of the constitu sh means for their vindication; to another used April 20, 1370, ontitled an act to en ree the provisions of the fourteenth nendment to the Constitution of the Uniter ates, and for other purposes; also, to on used May 80, 1870, entitled an act to entree the right of citizens of the Uniter ates to vote in the several States of the uses and for other purposes, which, with States to vote in the several States of the Union' and for other purposes, which, with their amendments, make these deeds of violence and blood offences within the Jurisdistion of the General Government.

I Consider it my duty, in view of these circumstances, to proceed with all possible energy and dispatch, to detect, expose arras and punish the perpetrators of these crimes and to that end you are to spare no effort on necessary expense. Troops of the United States will be stationed at different and convenient points in your district for the purpose of giving all needful aid in the discharge of your officials duties.

You understand, of course, that no interference whatever is hereby intended with any political or party action.

These instructions are issued by the hority of the President, and with the urrence of the Secretary of War,

GEO. H. WILLIAMS,

BLACK WRONGS.

Under the above caption the 'Cincinnati Commercial', an indeperdent and influential journal with probably the largest circulation of any paper in the great Northwest, in an article of a columns length denounces the cruel, inhaman and outrageous persecution of our people by the lawless bands, White League Kn-Klux organization in the South, that are perpetrating the most brutal and cowardly murders, such as occurred at Pickettsville, Tenn. last week and more recently in our own State in Red River parish.

The subjoined, is the article reour contemporaries of the press; and especially do we urge the soberminded and honest white masses of Louisiana to read this article and reflect upon it; as we know it represents the sentiments of two thirds of the Northern and Western voters, who have become alarmed at this fearful record of crime and are determined that the life and property he be shall be as safe and as sacred in every portion of the South as it is elsewhere amid the intelligent and

The closing paragraph we italicial attention to the suggestions contained therein:

"There never was a more miserable pretense than has recently been put forward in some parts of the South to justify outrages upon the blacks, It is pretended, and there may be possi-Aroused and determined, there is that a war of races is inevitable. "And this is the meaning of the reeent bloody raids upon the blacks. It is thought necessary to intimidate them. They are to be cowed into abject submission, and shot if they show a disposition to maintain their political independence. There is not an intelligent white man in Kentucky. apprehension as to his rights, civil, religious or social. He knows he has both the ability and power to maintain them. His real apprehension is lest he be unable to practically deprive the blacks of theirs. He wants the government, the officers, the places, the responsibilities to himself; and his purpose is to remand the darky to the cotton and rice fields as a wage laborer. entitled to no voice in political affairs, and bound to submit to the dictation of those who have a divine right to rule or to ruin.

The chaff which we find in some of our Southern exchanges about the nogroes-their desperate and dark designs, their secret organizations, their disguises, their arms, their sinister activity, and all that,-can hardly impose on any one. The negroes know too well the disadvantages under which they labor to meditate any violence to the whites. Here and there one driven to desperation, or acting under a keen sense of wrong, may do violence but, as a mase, the negroes of the South are peaceable and timid almost to the verge of cowardies. In every instance where it has been reported that the negroes were arming, movng in masses upon towns and villages, and breathing out slaughter and rapine it has been found that they were taking to their beels, hiding in the woods, and doing their level best to get out of the way of danger.

"They want peace. The meeting held in Nashville last week expre their views most fully. "We they say, "and have done nothing as a people to merit the abuses and bad treatment which we are enduring and have endured," and in proof of this they cite an appalling list of outrages committed during the month of gust; the killing of Sandy Peebles in Butherford County by masked men; raheor is now exposed, excite our de et on Springs, in open daylight; the disgusting.

On the subject of "Equal Rights" Harper's Weekly reviews this paragraph from the Louisville Courier-

"The Civil Rights Bill may be cassed, and signed by the President. If it does, there will be a war of races a revolution, the overthrow of universal suffrage, and a military government at Washington. If the North is ready for this, so is the South; we have touched bottom, liate stage is to be avoided if possible, and we would avoid it, even if we have to back General Grant for a third term, or for life. He may veto the Civil Rights Bill,

The Weekly conclusively replies: Plainly the wise and patriotic, manner. This can not and will not be done by the Democratic party. It declares, indeed, that the rights of the colored citizens must be protected, But it "abhors" an equality which it calls social, but which is not social, being merely legal. It speaks with Mr. Eaton of "our brothers" in the Southern States, meaning those who dencunce the colored race as barbarous. Its animating spirit is one of hostility to the policy that gave po-litical and civil rights to the colored people. It is traditionally servile to the class that held them in slavery; and while the Democratic party does not declare that the col-ered race should be deprived of the suffrage, the manner in which it would protect that right can be inferred from every Democratic journal and orator and convention while Democratic contempt of equal while Democratic contempt of equal civil right is openly and vehemenlty expressed. But equality of citizenship and the disappearance of prejudice against that equality are simply impossible when the law stigmaes any class of citizens.

This is the very time to insist that the policy which has been adopted shall not be abandoned. To hesitate, to retreat, to attempt to undo this work, would be the height of folly. The Louisville Courier-journal ought to know that its threats of civil war and revolu-American citizens be everywhere maintained. From the first moment in the first Congress that the question of the colored race in the Union challenged attention down to the present moment, every proposition of amelioration of its condition has been met with the same surely end in universal massacre and anarchy. The event has uniformly belied the prediction; and had the Democratic warning been heeded and the counsel followed, this nation would have been Since, then, the Democratic party, always the foe of equal lib

For no intelligent erver can doubt that it wor lead to a policy of oppression to-ward the colored race, and an angry and indefinite prolongation of that cause of national trouble. To avert this result the Democratic party must be defeated now, as it has been necessary for fourteen years to defeat it, in the interest of liberty intelligence, and civilization. And to this end it is indispensible that secondary issues of every kind be patriotically postponed, and that the best men be nominated by the Re-

The South Carolina Congressional delegation, both Senators and Representatives, are of one mind in condemnation of and opposition to Gov. Moses, of that State.

U. S. Senator Brownlow, of Tennessee has a brother in that State quite as strong a character in his will in good time get their quietus and can go no further. Acting Governor Talbot, straight temperance, is pronounced as the Massachusetts for the governorship of that State.

Hon. Jere Harralson has been ominated for Congress by the Republicans of the First Alabama District. He will certainly be elected. Having a district of some five thousand majority.

Hon. James T. Rapier has been unanimously renominated for Congress by the Republicans of the Second Alabama district,

The Rochester (N. Y.) Democrat and Chronicle closes an article on civil rights thus: "And now let Republicans everywhere speak. Let them put a civil rights plank into each of their State platforms. Let their sentiments be unmistakeable. We counsel no violence, we advise no extra constitutional measures of retaliation, but we do ask that the safety of the negro shall be assured by the united voice of the Republican party. Such utterance will carry with it a moral influence not tion are obsolete. There was a time when they had force, and when a timid "North" trembled. "The willingness of the Southern TALES, people to accept leaders and obey them has been a fact much lost sight of, probably because the out-side world knew the South better absolutely subjugated by the slave by its leaders than by its population power of injustice and inhumanity. in general, and indeed, this population lation was hardly known to the outside world at all, and is not yet. What the Northerner or European was accustomed to see in the Southerner as he showed in Washington was a naturally high-spirited man, accustomed to the independent expression of his opinions, free in act as well as speech, and in general well equipped with all that important class of the gentlemanly qualities which are related to courage and self-assertion. As a rule, he was badly off as regards some of the other indispensable qualities. but of these a certain number of Southerners had a full supply.

It was proposed through this Journal to furnish to our PEOPLE the information — guidance — en-couragement and counsel which tion from their former unfortunate condition into the new and better state of American citizenship. In resuming its publication re-assure our readers and friends, that, holding this journal true to its original aims, we shall honestly labor to make it an efficient agent in furthering the interests of 'he colored people of the Nation, and elevating the race that it especially represents.

POLICY.

As our motto indicates, the Louisianian shall be Republican at all times and under all circum-stances." We shall advocate the security and enjoyment of broad civ. hoerty, the absolute equality all men before the law, and an impartial distribution of honor and impartial distribution of honor and patronage to all who merit them.

Desirous of allaying animosities, of obliterating the memory of the bitter past, of promoting harmony and union among all classes and between all interests, we shall advocate the removal of all disabilities forter kindness and forbers. ties, foster kindness and forbear ance, where malignity and resent-ment reigned, and seek for fairness and justice where wrong and op-pression prevailed. Thus united in our aims and objects, we shall conserve our best interests, and elevate ou...ble State, to an enviable position among her sister States, by the development of her illimitable re-sources, and secure the full benefits of the mighty changes in the history and condition of the people and the Sountry.

Believing that there can be no true liberty without the supremacy of law, we shall urge a strict and undiscriminating administration of

TAXATION.

We shall support the doctrine of an equitable division of taxation among all classes, a faithful collection of the revenues, economy in the expenditures, conformably with the exigencies of the State or country and the discharge of every legitimate obligation.

EDUCATION.

We shall sustain the carrying out of the provisions of the act establishing our common school system, and urge as a paramount duty the education of our youth, as vitally con-nected with their own enlighten-ment, and the security and stability of a Republican Government.

By a generous, manly, indepen-dent, and judicious ecurse, we shall strive to rescue our paper, from an ephemoral, and temporary existence, and establish it upon basis, that if we cannot "command we shall at all events "deserve"
